KEYMACRO is a small and simple Windows utility that allows you to automatically convert keyboard shortcuts into macros for easy repeating of any sequence of keystrokes. KEYMACRO is a keylogger. It tracks every keystrokes and saves them in the registry. When you use keylogger to make a text using the keyboard, then this software will make the macro and send that macro to the keylogger's plugin. The plugin checks the last keystrokes and sends that macro to the clipboard (depending on the copy status, and what you have in the clipboard). If you use this software, then it will make a keylogger that will track your actions. It will record every single keystroke you do.
